The following facts are not in dispute :

The service of the petitioner was terminated on closure of Department in the year 1973 and the petitioner has approached this Court in the year 2007. There is no valid justification for the inordinate delay, which is caused in approaching this Court. Since petitioner did not approach this Court within a reasonable time and inordinate delay is unexplained, it is difficult for us to show any indulgence. The petition suffers from delay and laches and hence, the same is dismissed.
